Portaprompt are pleased to announce, for IBC 2006, a NEW Strategic Partnership and Alliance with Starfish Technologies. Portaprompt will be interfacing its Windigi Software to the Starfish's ISIS subtitling software, to automatically create subtitling captions. It is planned as part of the Strategic Partnership, a joint development of VoiceDigi, an affordable, multilingual Voice Activated Prompter for delivery in the last quarter of 2006. Both companies have a long track record in innovative design, R & D, software development and customer service, satisfaction and timely delivery.

Portaprompt have been manufacturers of Broadcasting equipment since 1963 and will this year be exhibiting at IBC the lightest and brightest Portable Prompting equipment the market has to offer through innovative design, research and development. Come and see Portaprompt's innovative products on Stand no 8.174. We look forward to seeing you there!
